Data Privacy Policy

The present Data Privacy Policy (“Policy”) forms part of the Terms. For the purpose of the Policy, the following definitions apply:

“Personal Data” means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. A natural person is identifiable by taking into account all the means reasonably likely to be used, such as singling out, either by the Data Controller or by another person to identify the natural person directly or indirectly.

“Data Controller” means the natural or legal person which determines the purposes and means of the processing of Personal Data.

MSC is committed, as Data Controller, to protect your Personal Data when using MyMSC.com.

Your Personal Data will be collected and processed for the time necessary to provide you with the requested services accessible through MyMSC.com. Only authorized personnel of MSC will have access to your Personal Data.

The collection and processing of the following Personal Data is necessary for MSC to provide you with the requested services:

- your contact details which include your first and last name, phone number, and postal address;
- your company name and job position;
- your email address;
- your booking number; and
- your container number.

You acknowledge to have been informed that some of the recipients of your Personal Data are located in third countries which is justified by the structure of the services. These countries may not have the same level of protection as provided by your applicable data privacy law.

You have the right to access and rectify any Personal Data about you via MyMSC.com, where available, or by filing our dedicated form.

Any questions relating to your Personal Data should be addressed to: CH001-data.protection@msc.com.

For legitimate grounds, you may in addition oppose to the processing of your data or request their deletion. In this case, you are aware that your booking could be rejected for lack of necessary information.
